1.7 GENERALIZED SUBSCRIPTION SERVICES

Some of the products or services offered are offered under a renewable annual subscription model. When contracting the service, the collection process collects the first annuity and the STRIPE tool associated with the web collection process saves the bank card data for the collection of the second and successive annuities.

In the case of offers in the subscription models, these only apply to the first annuity, with the payment of the second and subsequent annuities being the one reflected on the website corresponding to the product or service at the time of the annual renewal. Offers are not cumulative with each other.

The client will be entitled to use the subscription until the end of the annuity, regardless of the date that the non-renewal of said subscription was requested.

If the customer has an active subscription and wishes to upgrade or downgrade, please go to support@twonav.com. The payment platform will propose paying the proportional amount for the first annual period, prorating the amount paid and enjoyed.

In case of wishing to cancel the subscription, the customer must carry out the cancellation process in advance of the annual renewal in their personal MYTWONAV space, by clicking the Cancel Subscription button.

1.8 PAYMENT METHODS

The customer may pay the amount of his order by choosing any of the following ways. During the purchase process you must indicate your choice:

- VISA or MASTERCARD credit card

All operations that involve the transmission of personal or banking data are carried out using a secure environment, a server based on standard security technology SSL (Secure Sockets Layer). All the information that you transmit to us travels encrypted through the network.

Likewise, your credit card details are entered directly on the bank's page, at the Bank's POS (Point of Sale Terminal) and are not entered or registered on any COMPEGPS TEAM SL server.

When paying with a VISA or MASTERCARD card, the following information will always be requested: the card number, the expiration date, and a Validation Code that matches the last three digits of the number printed in italics on the back of your card. VISA or MASTERCARD card, thus offering more guarantees regarding the security of the transaction.

This form of payment is valid only on the web.

When the amount of a purchase has been charged fraudulently or improperly using a payment card number, its holder may demand the immediate cancellation of the charge. In such a case, the corresponding debit and repayment entries in the accounts of the supplier and the holder will be made as soon as possible.

However, if the purchase had actually been made by the cardholder and the return requirement was not a consequence of having exercised the right of withdrawal or resolution and, therefore, would have unduly required the cancellation of the corresponding charge, the former will be obliged to compensate COMPEGPS TEAM SL for damages caused as a result of said cancellation.
